

Happy Girl

Hm = 85 G D Hm G Longtime no see, young Ms. Brown how come you're wea - ring such an I knew you when you were a child you used to have friends that your I feel for you, young Ms. Brown in a ge - ne - ric way, cause

7 D F#m Hm G D Hm G ac - ri - mo - ni - ous frown has your life trea - ted you bad or is it something in the parents thought were too wild you have been laughing all the time no game too dan - ge - rous, no
 I don't know why you're down it ne - ver will be like be - fore but one day it will get too

15 D F#m E G A past that you ne - ver had when did it oc - cur cause you're not the girl that you were, they say tree-top too high to climb when did it go bad was it some-thing with your dad tough to bear a - ny-more o - pen up your heart there's no bet-ter mo-ment to start

21 D G Em A⁷ D G
 you've been such a happy girl what happened to your happy world haven't you been o - pen-min-ded,

27 Em A⁷ G D A Hm
 ea-sy - go - ing, now I find it hard to stand your a-ti - tude of suffering and dis-pair, your

33 G F#m Em A Hm
 mistrust and your bit-ter looks don't come from a - ny - where, Ms. Brown